

AnimeConnections

Friday
Morning
August 30 2

Where is
room 2XX,
and why is it
May 25th?

(or: Con-Oooooops! and
"Lets do the Time Warp Again, Scotty!")

Due to a few typographical erros, an extremely rushed publication, and last minute changes, there were several mistakes in the first issue of the newsletter.

First of all, Con-Ops is in room 266, not 2XX.

Next, today's date is Friday, August 27th, not
May 25th.

Deep apologies for the confusion the room number typo may have caused. (if the date glitch got you confused, it's time for some of that nice liquid that's loaded with caffeine to keep you awake. Hint: The Red Lion Coffee Garden is named after it, and you'll find plenty of it there.)

AnimeConnections is the newsletter of AnimeCon '91. Number 4, Saturday Evening, August 29th, 1990.

Leiji Matsumoto not attending AnimeCon

Close friend is ill; forced to stay in Japan

Leiji Matsumoto, one of the feature guests of the convention, will not be attending this weekend. According to Gainax officials, a close friend of his has fallen seriously ill. He deeply regrets not being able to attend the convention. If any more information comes in from Japan about his status, we will post it in a future issue of the newsletter.

"Deeply
regrets
not being able to attend."

Finalized Live Programming
Schedule on Reverse Side! ➔

Mikimoto arriving 12:00 noon on

Mikimoto will be arriving at the hotel sometime around noon on Friday. This means he may miss the opening ceremonies.

Back hallways for hotel staff only

Ever wonder what's in those big blank spots that appear on the hotel maps? Well, it's not the secret subterranean hamster breeding grounds, it's not the Red Lion Inn ball point pen factory, it's the service hallways for hotel staff and maids. Please keep out of these areas, or hotel security will not hesitate to whip out their protoculture weapons and promptly escort you off the property.

Deadline for Evening Edition: 4 PM Friday
